

Admission requirements MSD2017/Unibas

Evidence of a university bachelor's degree worth at least 180 CP (ECTS) in selected fields of study in the extent of 100 CP from one or 150 CP from max. two of the listed branches of study:

Economics

- Business administration
- Economics

Social Sciences

- Geography
- Communication and media studies
- Philosophy
- Political science
- Social and cultural anthropology/ethnology
- Social work and social policy
- Sociology

Natural Sciences

- Applied biosciences
- Biology
- Earth sciences
- Forestry
- Geography
- Environmental sciences
- Environmental and geomatics engineering

PLUS

Average grade 5 (Swiss scale)

PLUS

Knowledge in the form of at least 10 CP in mathematics (at least 3 CP) and statistics or methods of empirical social research (at least 3 CP) university level

OR

GRE®-Test (Graduate Examination Records) General Test

With results from the following test areas

⇒ quantitative reasoning: among the top 30%

⇒ analytical writing: among the top 20%

Admission subject to an additional requirement of max. 30 credit points (pursuant to the study regulations of the University of Basel) may follow if the criteria for the branches of study is met but the participating faculties do not recognize the bachelor's degree program as equivalent (e.g. obtained from a university of applied sciences, from abroad, or required CPs/branch(es) of study have not been achieved).