

University of Basel

msd

Master's Degree in Sustainable Development

MSD 2017 Module Structure (Study Regulations § 7):

The MSD offers three focus areas. At the beginning of the studies, students decide on one of them.

Every focus area has its own the module structure. For details see next pages.

Contact information:

Camelia Chebbi, head coordination office coordination-msd@unibas.ch
www.msd.unibas.ch

MSD 2017 Module Structure (Study Regulations § 7): Focus area in Natural Sciences

Master's Thesis 30 CP Natural Sciences

Preparation Master's Thesis (incl. methods) 15 CP Natural Sciences

Core Competences 15 CP Natural Sciences

Focal Areas in Sustainability Research 12 CP ("elective")

Interdisciplinary Research in Sustainability 24 CP, among others:
Introduction into Topics and Approaches, (inter)disciplinary methods, research lab

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Social Sciences

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Economics

MSD 2017 Module Structure (Study Regulations § 7): Focus area in Social Sciences

Master's Thesis 30 CP Social Sciences

Preparation Master's Thesis (incl. methods) 15 CP Social Sciences

Core Competences 15 CP Social Sciences

Focal Areas in Sustainability Research 12 CP ("elective")

Interdisciplinary Research in Sustainability 24 CP, among others:
Introduction into Topics and Approaches, (inter)disciplinary methods, research lab

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Natural Sciences

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Economics

MSD 2017 Module Structure (Study Regulations § 7): Focus area in Economics

Master's Thesis 30 CP Economics

Preparation Master's Thesis (incl. methods) 15 CP Economics

Core Competences 15 CP Economics

Focal Areas in Sustainability Research 12 CP ("elective")

Interdisciplinary Research in Sustainability 24 CP, among others:
Introduction into Topics and Approaches, (inter)disciplinary methods, research lab

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Natural Sciences

Complementary Knowledge 12 CP
Social Sciences
